Mastering the Art of Directing Your Case

This Graduate I Course offers TLC graduates a unique opportunity to deepen their directing skills and hone their communication skills to prepare their clients and cases. Graduates will work in small groups and practice trial skills on real cases while receiving constructive instruction and guidance from experienced TLC-trained trial lawyers and licensed, certified psychodramatists. By the end of the course, TLC graduates will have a clearer path to directing their case to a successful conclusion.

TLC-trained trial lawyers have proven time and again how the chances of winning dramatically increase using the TLC Method.
