Win Catastrophic Injury Trials With the TLC Method

In-Person Course

February 15, 2027 through February 18, 2027 • 4:00 PM – 12:00 PM

Where: Chaminade Resort And Spa, One Chaminade Lane, Santa Cruz, CA 95448-4602

Catastrophic injury cases require more than strong evidence and expert testimony. They demand a lawyer who can uncover the full human impact of the injury and present that truth with clarity, courage, and authenticity. In this immersive, in-person program, participants will use Trial Lawyers College methods—including psychodrama, role reversal, reenactment, and storytelling—to explore their clients' lives before a...

The Human Story: Investigation, Mitigation & Advocacy at Sentencing

In-Person Course

September 26, 2027 through October 1, 2027 • 5:00 PM on Sept 26, 2027 - 12:00 PM on Oct 1, 2027

Where: Scarritt Bennett Center, 1027 18th Ave S, Nashville, TN 37212

For many people accused of serious crimes, sentencing is the most consequential proceeding of their case—and sometimes the only proceeding at which the defense has the opportunity to tell the client's story. Yet lawyers are rarely taught how to investigate a human life, develop mitigation, prepare sentencing witnesses, confront devastating facts, or transform a collection of records and information into a persuasi...

2027 Graduate Course II

In-Person Course

October 16, 2027 through October 23, 2027 • First day starts 3 PM - last day ends 12 PM (CST)

Where: Lied Lodge, 2700 Sylvan Rd, Nebraska City, NE 68410

Graduate II: Storytelling Mastery for Trial Winning at trial often depends on your ability to tell a story jurors can understand, experience, and remember. Graduate II challenges TLC alumni to push beyond familiar habits and strengthen the advanced storytelling skills that can transform a case. Through psychodrama, TLC methods, small-group case work, and storytelling and story-editing instruction inspired by The M...
